Invitation Letter to Guadec 2007

On behalf of GUADEC 2007 Organization Committee, we cordially invite Ms. Sara Khalatbari to attend GUADEC 2007: The GNOME Conference 15th - 21st July, 2007, Birmingham, United Kingdom, the 8th annual GNOME Users and Developers European Conference.

Ms. Sara Khalatbari holds a passport numbered L8020186 and she is a Software developer.

Her accommodation during 14th - 22nd July 2007 is covered by the GUADEC committee in the Etap Hotel, 1 Great Colmore Street Birmingham, B15 2AP, UK. GUADEC committee will also cover her flight cost.

GNOME Foundation (gnome.org) is a non-profit, non-government organization based in Boston, USA, with a worldwide membership. The GNOME User and Developer European Conference (GUADEC) www.guadec.org is an annual gathering of GNOME developers, enthusiasts and individual, business, education and government users worldwide.

GUADEC 2007 will draw about 500 participants from every corner of the globe to Birmingham in July 2007. This event is dedicated to software developers that will provide a forum for members of the GNOME project to showcase their work and to discuss the future of GNOME development.

Please issue the appropriate visa for this individual's entry into the United Kingdom to be able to attend this meeting. Should you need any questions please feel free to contact me at the address, phone number or email address above.

Yours sincerely,

Paul Cooper
